“The Palau-America relationship is built on equal partnership, shared prosperity, environmental preservation, climate protection, and steadfast perseverance...

As the center of the world’s economy shifts toward the Pacific, and as countries from here to Southeast Asia ask us to maintain regional security, our relationship will only grow stronger....Federal departments and agencies will continue to provide assistance in such areas as economic development, health, education, disaster relief, climate change, security, and infrastructure....

The United States is proud to be your partner and friend.”

U.S. Assistant Secretary of State for East Asian and Pacific Affairs Daniel R. Russel, Address to National Congress of Palau, February 25, 2016
